Bonney's DF should be called Distortion DF, its perfect because she can manipulate her race from human to giant, also the age from kid to old and vice versa and now she can distort the future to turn herself into Nika.....

Distort-distort fruit is perfect for that not age-age fruit

I think they said her power was artificially created. The age-age fruit might just be a fake name they have it similar to Luffy with the gum-gum fruit

I mean, it can't create a future people don't believe, like that one time she failed to become "Nika" because Luffy already had their power. So instead this time she made it a future of "absolute freedom" so no one could deny the possibility.

D'AWW, Doll and Bluegrass are so cute! And come on, they should still have their Haki and fighting prowess, being de-aged shouldn't take away that! Heck, it should make you stronger! Because Kid Power is AWESOME!

HA HA, Luffy has his own Nika sidekick now! The adventures of Nika and Neyka! The Age-Age Fruit has just as much imagination as the Gum-Gum Fruit.

Bonny's power is distorting time if or when she becomes Nika. but still depends in her imagination too.
the reason she success is because she has better imagination than before. also probably because she copying or imitating power of Hito Hito Fruit. I mean probably she can't imitating something like logia power

Make a dream become reality

Is her devil fruit concept?
Like · Reply · Mark as spam · 1h

Attila Balta
"Make a dream become reality" ->this is the devil fruit concept. Her fruit power is the time manipulation and within time the possibility outcomes. She can be anything because there is an infinite possibility. As Crocodile said, with enough training and usage any DF can be OP.

just to clarify bonney fruit is like a lite [like way too lite] version of almighty [just for herself not the universe] if bonney believes she can be nika in the future[timeline] thats her future for that short duration its like a kid dreaming of becoming spiderman and in one of the "infinite" timelines he becomes one in another timeline he becomes batman ,ironman etc. [for bonny its giant future (already used 2 times), fishmen future, luffy future]
she wont have a full fleged g5 she will just have powers she thinks g5 has [which for now is just going big and hitting rubber-y punches in short whatever she has seen luffy do also people wondering if she can copy the Lorosei
NO caz she would NOT WANT A FUTURE WHERE SHE BECOMES LIKE ONE OF THOSE PEOPLE ESPECIALLY AFTER THE KUMA MEMORIES

I wonder if it can create a distorted future that she has a different fruit
Like · Reply · Mark as spam · 1h

Attila Balta
Yes without enough knowledge she unable to get the right distorted future where the powers are the exact same.And g5 has haki technics too.But she can copy anything she want, thats how she doesn't want to copy the gorosei powers thats different.
